

Save the date!

Guiding Green

with the UMass Boston Office of International & Transnational Affairs present the 3rd International Symposium on Green Processing in the Pharmaceutical & Fine Chemical Industries

*University of Massachusetts Boston
Boston, Massachusetts, USA
September 30th – October 1st 2010*

Focus Areas:

- Green organic synthesis
- Biotransformations and biological drug processing
- Enabling technology platforms

Sponsorship opportunities are now available.
www.GuidingGreen.com/Pharm_FineChem.html

Testimonials:

- “This is the best Green Chemistry conference I have attended!”
- “I was somewhat humbled to be among the extraordinarily high caliber of speakers and from which I gained some very useful information.”
- “In my view this has been an excellent opportunity for networking & benchmarking.”
- 95% of survey respondents would recommend the symposium to others.

Organizing Committee:

- Paul T. Anastas, Ph.D., Yale University
- Berkeley W. Cue, Ph.D., BWC Pharma Consulting
- Chao-Jun Li, Ph.D., McGill University
- Julie B. Manley, Guiding Green, LLC
- Wei Zhang, Ph.D., UMass Boston

Registration will open soon.

For more information:

Julie Manley juliemanley@GuidingGreen.com (815) 325-4974

www.GuidingGreen.com or www.oita.umb.edu